

Important Summer Vendor Information

- There is a $50 vendor fee that must be paid to confirm your space. Your parking “booth” space is not secured until your vendor fee has been paid in full:

Venmo @kentuckypops

Paypal @kentuckypops

- Set up begins at 9am, doors open to the public at 10am, market ends at 4pm, and we should be cleaned up by 5pm.
- The market is a Trunk Show. Booths are set up out of the trunk of your car in designated parking spaces at the event. Vendors can set up a table next to their vehicle but are not required to. The beauty of the trunk show is that there is no hauling and set up and take down is easy!
- We encourage vendors to be as unique as you please with your display, however, loud music is prohibited.
- Kentucky Pop-Ups is not liable or responsible for any accidents or incidents that occur while vendors, volunteers or patrons are on the property for this event. In addition, Kentucky Pop-Ups assumes no liability or responsibility for any effects small business vendor products may have on patrons. Each vendor holds responsibility and liability for their own products and product effects.

- Vendors may have access to event space beginning 9am on day of event. The event concludes at 4:00pm and vendors have until 5:00 pm for break down.
- Payment shall be made directly through the link provided upon application approval.
- In an effort to offer a variety of offerings, we will be carefully selecting vendors, however we will certainly keep all applicants in mind for future events!
- If selected for this event, we will be in touch promptly to confirm your participation and add you to our marketing content for the event.
- Registration fees are non-refundable. In the event of a proven accident, riot, strike, epidemic, an act of God or any other legitimate condition or occurrence beyond their respective control, Kentucky Pop-Ups will be rescheduled for a date to be determined. In the event this event is cancelled by Kentucky Pop-Ups this contract is null and void and vendors will receive a full refund.
- Small business vendors are entitled to use the name, likenesses, and other promotional materials provided for the Kentucky Pop-Up Market. As a registered vendor you are welcome to submit a promotional item, i.e., coupon, business card, flyer etc., to be considered in our marketing content.
- Your acceptance of these terms is verified and confirmed when you submit your application.
